4 Bedroom, 3.50 Bathroom, 4,174 sqft

Residential on 162.81 Acres

35-B, Upper Musquodoboit, NS

At the top of a hardwood-lined lane in Upper Musquodoboit, there is a home worthy of its pastoral setting. Every detail was meticulously thought-out by the builder, who constructed it for his family. The main level features a sunken living room with vaulted post-and beam detail, wood-burning fireplace, gracious dining room, office off the entryway, spacious kitchen, laundry room, storage and entryway. There is also a large sunroom with a full bath, which would convert beautifully to a yoga studio, art space, or an al-fresco dining area. A wrap-around patio affords views of the grounds. The upper level features a master suite that includes a large bedroom, dressing room, en-suite bath, and sitting room, with panoramic views of the valley below. Three more spacious bedrooms and a family bath complete this level. The basement of the home has plenty of storage plus two finished rooms. The grounds feature a pond with fountain, a large garden with fruit trees, and a sizeable outbuilding, suitable for a machine shop, stables, or space from which to operate an organic farm business or winery. Parcel will be subdivided and will contain approximately 25 acres. This property is for the discerning buyer, who seeks not just a home, but a way of life. Viewings by appointment.
