When a classic home is met with eloquent contemporary designs, the result is something timeless. Built in 1895, this stunning waterfront home might only be bested in its beauty, by the breathtaking views of the LaHave River. With an original staircase, beautiful wood flooring throughout, and a modern kitchen partnered with a dining room that dares history to speak, this four-bedroom, two bath home is fit for any generation. The splendor spills outside with beautiful landscaping, a porch that beckons for entertaining, and your very own riverside gazebo, and dock with deep water access and private boat launch – the perfect place for the moon to meet the sky, and stories to meet friends.
