Residential on 0.57 Acres

E2, Milton, NS

If you are looking for a home with an abundance of historic charm and character that is move-in ready, look no further than this beautiful South Shore property in Milton, Queens County. Pride of ownership shows in this well-loved stately home that literally has it all: large open layout eat-in kitchen with fireplace; separate formal dining room; two gorgeous sitting rooms; main floor powder room (with stained glass window); office; storage; and all the unique nooks, crannies, and storybook passageways you expect from a heritage property. So much care and attention to detail has been taken in maintaining the character of this home, including period light fixtures, built-ins, and elegant trim. Traditional meets modern with an updated kitchen and main floor laundry. The upstairs features a spacious landing with wide plank barn-board flooring that leads to three large, airy bedrooms and a generous main bath. This listing also boasts a large, beautifully landscaped lot with a peaceful pond and multi-room shed/garage. Clearly this home was built to last, and has been exquisitely maintained over the years.
