This three level home in the heart of the village of Chester offers three levels of family living within a comfortable walking distance of amenities and Chester's beautiful waterfront. The home is set back from a quiet road in a grove of mature trees lending a 'country atmosphere' in the heart of one of the most sought after towns on the East Coast, Chester by the sea. The natural setting lends well to privacy in this convenient, central location and the three levels, all freshly painted, with a bath on each floor would be ideal for a multi-generational family or a couple who work from home.
