Unveiling a classic gem in the heart of Nova Scotia! This 1970's beauty, with its traditional 2-storey allure and charming brick accent, is a testament to enduring quality. The home boasts 4 good sized bedrooms, 2 full baths, laundry located on 2 levels, a warm family room off the kitchen and a full living room & dining room. They don't build them like this anymore! 1651 Highway 2 gives you a quality canvas ready for your modernizing personal touch. Step inside to discover solid wood original trim, freshly painted walls, and the modern touch of 4 heat pumps. The new metal roof adds a gives years of peace of mind, ensuring both style and substance. Upgraded electrical panel, newer hot water tank and oil tanks. Picture yourself entertaining on the newer back deck with a delightful gazebo, creating memories under the stars. The home does have an existing chairlift to the second level (easily removed) for those needing assistance to upper level- perfect for aging parents. Nature lovers, rejoice! This haven backs onto a large greenbelt, offering 2+ acres of space. The walk-out basement, partially finished and awaiting your magic touch, opens up possibilities for added living space. And there's more â€“ a detached 2 level barn (24x30 + jog) currently used as a workshop could easily be transformed for animals and livestock. With a prime location just 20 minutes from Truro and 40 minutes from Halifax, this home is not just a property; it's your next chapter waiting to be written. Seize the opportunity to modernize and make it uniquely yours!
