On the main floor the living room has beautiful, original windows that bay out towards the new front verandah. Classic double pocket doors seperate this space from the dining dining room. The large country kitchen has an abundant of cupboard space, window overlooking the back yard, a small breakfast area, and access to the back deck. A two piece bath and laundry were added on this level, which gave room for a small kitchen pantry. The upper level has an beautifully updated bathroom with walk in shower, primary bedroom, two additional good sized bedrooms and a smaller room that would be a great home office, nursery, or play space. The fully fenced back yard has a European vibe with large planters, patio stones, and private seating areas. This place really shines in the summertime.
