Visit REALTOR® website for additional information. Nestled in the vibrant and highly sought-after Hydrostone District, this charming 1940s bungalow offers a rare combination of coziness, convenience, and character. Just steps from the Hydrostone Market, it features a spacious backyard oasis and private 2-car driveway. Recent upgrades include a new roof (2023), heat pump system (2022), freshly painted interior (2022), along with new light fixtures, and refinished floors throughout, new front deck (2022) and new back deck (2023). The lower level has flexible space for a home office, den, or spare room. Two bathrooms are dated but offer potential for updates. Two direct bus routes to downtown via Robie and Gottingen streets. Whether you're looking for a cozy, move-in-ready home or an investment opportunity in one of Halifax's most desirable neighbourhoods, this property offers it all.
