3 Bedroom, 1.50 Bathroom, 1,936 sqft

Residential on 0.07 Acres

4-A, Halifax Peninsula, NS

Welcome to this lovely family home nestled on a quiet one exit street in highly desirable West End Halifax. Built in 1938 in the historic Blink Bonnie subdivision for a young family who stayed for 33 years. Then it was home to three more families the last family living here for 50 years. As you pass through the porch, notice the beautiful red oak hardwood floors throughout the hallway, the open concept living room and dining room which are bathed in natural light through the large bay windows and side windows. These two rooms are made even cozier with beautiful arches and a working wood-burning fireplace. These rooms lead into a cozy den/music room. There is a large kitchen with high-end appliances ,a separate sunny kitchen eating area and a back porch/mudroom. The second floor has three well maintained, good sized bedrooms, a full bathroom and a walk up to an attic which allows for lots of storage. The basement is fully renovated with a family room, an office, a two piece bath and a furnace/ laundry room The property is lovely with lots of perennial bushes and a shed that provides both storage and working space for projects. This home is in both the Tupper and LeMarchant school zones. It's a few minutes away from lovely Flinn Park, close to the Halifax Shopping Centre, as well as all the amenities on Quinpool Road, such as coffee shops restaurants etc.

Built in 1938
