N/A, Upper Economy, NS

New price reflects allowance for buyers to personalize with cosmetic upgrades -make this home truly your own!. The views are amazing and the atmosphere is incredible in this bright log home in Upper Economy at the end of a private lane. This warm and well maintained home is within walking distance to the beach, where you can swim, and bass fishing is nearby. It is ideally located an easy drive from Ski Wentworth, Bass River (General Store, pharmacy, medical clinic and post office), Masstown Market (gas, produce, groceries, restaurants etc), and the Fundy Geological Museum. This wonderful property is a great place to call home, whether it is a year round dwelling or a deluxe seasonal property. Either way, you will enjoy tranquility, silence and the fresh sea breeze. There are two sunrooms and a variety of decks from which to enjoy the views, including one off of the primary bedroom which has a spacious ensuite. The main floor is open concept which is perfect for entertaining or enjoying family time, with a bright custom kitchen with pantry . Internet is no problem, as both sellers currently work from home with no issues. You can get a taste of homesteading as well, with a chicken coop, greenhouse, fruit trees, and berries. If it is time for a lifestyle change and a move to the tranquility and privacy of the country, this Kenomee log home on 2.6 acres is a solid choice.
