Welcome to "The Marley," a stunning character apartment situated in a beautifully transformed cathedral. This heritage property is a designated "no smoking" space, ensuring a clean and serene environment. Step inside to discover high ceilings that enhance the sense of openness and light, complemented by a charming loft bedroom that adds a unique touch to the living space. The original church's spectacular arching wooden beams serve as a striking architectural feature, offering a glimpse into the building's rich history. The interior has been thoughtfully upgraded to blend modern comfort with classic charm. The kitchen boasts elegant hardwood cabinets paired with durable Corian countertops, making it both functional and stylish. The main level showcases exquisite ash hardwood floors that add warmth and character to the space. Natural light floods the apartment through bright, south-facing windows, providing picturesque views of the neighbor's lush green urban garden, complete with a soothing running brook. Additional conveniences include a dedicated storage unit in the basement, as well as loft storage within the unit itself, allowing for ample space to keep your belongings organized. Experience classic urban living at its best in this exceptional apartment—an ideal blend of historical charm and modern amenities! Pets: No Dogs permitted. Cats allowed.
