Affordable homes never looked so good or were so well constructed. These homes include building details that are usually only found in expensive high end homes. This home is also built to an energuide rating of 85, it includes a super efficient whole house heat pump that controls humidity year round, provides constant heat in winter and refreshing air conditioning in summer-PLUS Lower Total Energy Cost Every Month, Year after Year. As for the good looks, check out the photos and virtual tour-they are worth a `thousand words`. They show the quality workmanship, the design and the finishes - flooring ,hardware, lighting etc. It`s a complete quality package and you are invited to visit the model home open every weekend 1-4 in Twin Brooks to see for yourself & talk to the agents representing the builder, who know the homes very well. 12 homes are currently under construction. We have excellent financing available too.
